

IN OGDEN'S SOCIETY CIRCLES

LOVELY ROSE TEA AT WHICH INTERESTING ANNOUNCEMENT IS MADE TO GUESTS

Miss Katherine Hoag, whose engagement was announced today, enjoys many diversified interests. Chief among them is the beach life in California, where she reflects her charm several weeks every year.

MISS HOAG'S ENGAGEMENT.

Perhaps it is in the natural order of things that engagement announcements have burst into blossom like the early buds of spring.

An interesting evidence of this was the rose tea given by Mrs. Ralph E. Hoag at the Maids and Matrons club rooms this afternoon, when the engagement of her lovely daughter, Katherine Kingsbury Hoag, to Mr. Nelson Henry Nordgren was announced in a novel and artistic manner.

Rosebuds cunningly concealed the dainty card which bore the love secret of future happiness for one of Ogdens' most talented daughters and one of Salt Lake's favored sons.

The rooms were made beautiful with Ophelia and American Beauty roses, and June in all her splendor of flower life could not vie with the picture-like beauty of the dining room, nor the tea table, which was a veritable symphony of color.

During the merry hours while the two hundred and fifty bidden guests thronged the rooms, the Lillian Thatcher orchestra rendered many classical selections.

In the receiving line with Mrs. Hoag and her daughter were Mrs. H. F. Henderson and Mrs. J. G. Dooley of Salt Lake, while the friends who aided in this delightful affair were Mrs. Robert Miller of Farmington, Mrs. W. H. Harris, Mrs. R. S. Joyce, Mrs. W. F. Rudiger, Mrs. R. E. Bristol, Mrs. G. L. Becker, Mrs. D. C. Eccles, Mrs. Hugh C. Wood, Mrs. I. L. Reynolds, Mrs. Rose Sweet Woodruff, Mrs. Chas. E. Kaiser and Mrs. Chas. R. Hollingsworth.

PRETTY EVENTS AT MAIDS' AND MATRONS'

Very delightful were the affairs given on Tuesday and Wednesday at the Maids' and Matrons' club by Mrs. Joseph E. Wright and Mrs. George McCune, when about twenty guests enjoyed a luncheon with these charming hostesses.

A bowl in old English red held the lovely spring flowers of Marguerites, sweet peas and white irises, which formed the centerpiece of each table. The general color scheme was carried out in the hand-tinted place cards.

FOR WILLIS SMITH

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Smith, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Hall of North Ogden, entertained on Tuesday evening at their home, 2923 Childs avenue, in honor of Willis Smith, who departed this week for the Presidio, San Francisco.

Mr. Smith has received a lieutenant's commission and has answered a call to duty at the United States training camp at the Presidio.

A delightful social evening was spent at the Smith home and musical numbers and the serving of refreshments added to the pleasure of the memorable occasion.

The guests joined in congratulating the young officer on being one of the first to be called to the colors from Utah, while expressing the hope that he return unharmed from his services for the United States.

O. H. S. JUNIOR PROM.

The Ogdens high school has adopted a plan by which a part of the proceeds derived from its social gatherings will be used for the benefit of the government mobilization organization.

The announcement was made yesterday that all proceeds above expenses of the annual Junior Prom to be held in the Berthana tonight will go to the Red Cross fund.

In conformity with the nation's plans for retrenchment the girl students are to wear cotton hose instead of silk.

The seniors will be the complimentary guests at the ball, which will be one of the big social events incident to commencement.

Invitations have been extended to all the parents and it is expected that they will be present.

The patrons and patronesses will be Mr. and Mrs. James H. Riley, Mr. and Mrs. Wade Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Williams, Dr. and Mrs. E. L. Rich, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Levedahl, Principal and Mrs. J. E. Beeson, Superintendent and Mrs. H. C. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Thomas, Dr. and Mrs. Ezra Rich, Mrs. G. A. Woodruff, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Porter, Rev. and Mrs. J. E. Carver.

FOR MISS RUTH DOUGLAS.

On Thursday of this week at the club rooms of the Maids and Matrons, Mrs. James Douglass was the hostess to a beautifully appointed luncheon in honor of her lovely daughter Ruth, whose engagement to John Pingree, Jr., of Salt Lake, formerly of Ogdens, was announced.

Covers were laid for forty friends, who met for the disclosure of what has been a half suspected reality for some time past.

The luncheon was perfect in its appointments. The exquisite butterfly, whose wings drooped from the water glass, had suspended from it trailing ribbons, with a little cupid attached, leaving the message of union to those whose curiosity prompted a peep. The table decorations were in themselves interesting, but the circumstances which called into being the artistic bird-like cage covered in Cecil Bruner roses and bridal wreath spoke volumes of good cheer and love that linked itself with the future of this dainty bride-to-be.

No detail was overlooked in the completeness of this lovely affair and the friends of Miss Douglas will be happy to know the wedding will occur some time in June.

M. B. C. CLUB.

The M. B. C. Club met with Mrs. C. Redfield, 163 Harrisville Road on Wednesday. The afternoon was spent in needlework after which dainty refreshments were served. The following members of the club were present: Mrs. C. Aanderson, Mrs. A. Budge, Mrs. J. De Bano, Mrs. C. Iverson, Mrs. C. Robinson, Mrs. C. Perry, Mrs. J. Whitaker, and Mrs. E. Moore, Mrs. C. Redfield and Mrs. L. Morrison were the guests of honor.

PARCEL SHOWER

At her home on Jefferson avenue this afternoon, Miss Lillian Flygare entertained with a parcel shower in honor of Miss Oertel Rich, whose marriage occurs early in June. Over fifty guests were invited and a newly made quilt was the result of the afternoon's labor of love.

Dainty refreshments were then enjoyed amid bowers of spring blossoms.

"Mothers' Day will be fittingly and beautifully observed at the Orpheum theatre at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. The annual observance of this universal tribute to the mothers of our land touches a responsive chord in the hearts of all and this year, as in the past, a large company will gather to honor and cherish the mothers they are so fortunate in still having with them, and to treasure in loving memory the mothers who have passed beyond.
